The Wathens and Elwood rock road is in im ril. On Friday, the river had out to within thirty feet of the road, midway between Wathens and Elwood, and the washing is rapidly going on. There seems to be but little hope of saving the road; and as this road is not more than half a nile from the railroad track, it will not take the river long to reach that, at the rate it has lately been going. Then St. Joe will have to continue her bridge on o Wathena. This rock road is the only wagon road by

Call for a Enraces' County Convention. Resolved. By the Farmers' Protective Union, No. 1, that the time has arrived when it is product to take the preliminary steps to organize a County Union.

We therefore issue the following call for a Delegate Conrention of Practical Farmers and Horticulturis at the Court House, in Troy, on Saturday, the 31st of May, at 16 o'clock; and we earnestly urge upon the farmers of neighborhoods that have not already organized. Unions or Clubs, to do so immediately, in order that every part of the County may be fully represented. The representation in said Convention shall be as follows: Each organized Farmers' Association, of whatever usine, shall be entitled to two Delegates, and two for every additional twenty nembers after the first twenty, and one Delegate for any fractional part of twenty.

Resolved. That the publishers of the different papers of the County be respectfully requested to publish the above call, and keep it standing until after the date of said Con-Pres. of F. U. No. 1. WM. SEARCY.

Highland Items.

The item which has been the rounds of the public press, f some Rev. gentleman performing one hundred marriage eremonies, can be badly thrown in the shade by one of ou citizens. The Rev. Dana Fox has the record of more than four hundred marriages which he has selemized. Where is the person who can eclipse that? If he can be found, we would like to have him rise and speak; until that is done, we shall claim the belt and championship for Father Fox. Manhood: How Lost, How Restored.

The evidentisted author, in this admirable enery, chearly demonstrates from a thirty years accessful printice, that the abruning consequences of self-stuss may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure, at once simple, certain and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately, and radically.
